

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Combustion of hydrocarbon fuel is achieved with less formation of NO_x by feeding the fuel into a slightly 5 oxygen-enriched atmosphere, and separating air into oxygen-rich and nitrogen-rich streams which are fed separately into the combustion device.